

THE BRIDGE

Let H.O.P.E. be the bridge to a better tomorrow for you.

Volume 3 Issue 1

January 2011

A Message From Our Chairman

How has your life changed as a result of H.O.P.E.? In many ways, each H.O.P.E. graduate's experience is unique, and yet new participants frequently find strength in their journey as they draw upon the experiences of those who preceded them. A committee of board members and directors is presently collecting H.O.P.E. success stories in the anticipation of sharing them with those whose journey toward greater strength and independence has just begun. Perhaps you have a story you could share. If so, just call the H.O.P.E. office at (856) 234-2200, and a member of the committee would be pleased to speak with you.

Also, once again, we are renewing our call for H.O.P.E. participants who have contacts with the business or corporate community. In addition to the benefits H.O.P.E. provides to its participants, there is often another benefit that goes unrecognized, and that is the very practical benefit to the community at large when H.O.P.E. graduates return to their work renewed and restored after a devastating loss. Many businesses and corporations recognize this and become H.O.P.E. supporters and friends. You can help H.O.P.E. identify these individuals, so that we may encourage them to help us in support of our mission, once again by calling the office with this information.

Finally, if you are an active supporter of H.O.P.E., many thanks for your efforts and best wishes for a happy and healthy new year.

Board of Trustees

Directors' Dispatch

Barbara Kassekert, Program Director
Barbara Winiarski, Executive Director

Another year has ended. We want to wish all of you a wonderful New Year filled with health, peace, laughter, and lots of good things! Just to review the year, we have been busy brainstorming ways to raise awareness of our program not only through the media, but also by attending health fairs, going to senior/nutrition centers, speaking at church gatherings, and being available for any other place that will have us. There are many support groups out there, however, there is no other program like ours, where the facilitators have gone through the program, walked the walk and are so willing to share their experiences to help others through one of the most difficult times of their lives. We continue to be determined to look for opportunities to get the H.O.P.E. message out.

As always, we want to thank everyone for donating their talent, time and treasure for the success of H.O.P.E.

Many Thanks Barbara!

Barbara Kassekert, whose leadership in the H.O.P.E. program has spanned more than 20 years, recently tendered her resignation as Program Director to permit time for other pursuits.

Over these 20 years, Barbara has applied her own experience with the bereavement process, coupled with her experience as teacher and counselor, to effective leadership in the program. She has served variously as group leader, chapter coordinator, member of the Board of Trustees, and most recently as Program Director. Her sensitivity when dealing with the needs of others, her realistic expectations and common sense approach to problems, her sense of humor, and her commitment to the mission of our organization will be greatly missed.

H.O.P.E. Day at the Ritz

A dysfunctional theater group and an equally dysfunctional couple provide the laughs in this jam-packed, side-splitting comedy filled with fussing, fighting, mishaps, and mayhem. Come join other H.O.P.E. graduates and friends for a rollicking afternoon at the Ritz Theater in Oaklyn on Sunday, September 25 at 2 p.m. Tickets at $30, with a portion of the ticket price benefiting H.O.P.E., are available at the H.O.P.E. office or by calling (856) 234-2200.

Given the rising cost of postage, the next issue of the newsletter will be distributed by e-mail. We ask that if you have an e-mail address, you contact us at hopesnj@verizon.net with this information. Please include your full name and mailing address as well. Current participants will continue to receive a copy of the newsletter at their chapter meetings. The newsletter will also be available on our website, www.hopesnj.org.

If you do not wish to receive mailings from H.O.P.E., kindly contact the office at (888) 920-2201 or (856) 234-2200 and we will ensure that you are removed from the mailing list.

Chapter Chat

Browns Mills: The chapter collected food, money, and toys for a needy family. The family is part of Browns Mills United Methodist Church where the H.O.P.E. meetings are held.

Smithville AM: A Holiday Party was held for their current and former members in December. They had a wonderful time with a nice turnout of present and former members. Some members generously donated money to H.O.P.E.

Moorestown: Barbara Ericson, a group leader for many years, is retiring from her H.O.P.E. work. We thank Barbara for the time and energy she gave to us.

Chuck Mullen, a group member, supplied his beautiful home and good food for a Christmas party for the members of the Moorestown chapter. The party goes did augment the refreshments, and a good time was had by all!

Marlton: Chapter Coordinator Susan Friedman has some warm plans for the winter. She is going on an extended trip through Florida and Arizona that caps off with 5 weeks in Hawaii!

Swainton: Chapter Coordinator Bud Stein initiated and organized a table for H.O.P.E. at a Health Fair held at the Avalon Community Center. Bud, along with his wife Eileen, group leader Mae Ott, and member Jack Reid, attended and distributed our materials.

SPOTLIGHT ON:

Bud Stein, Swainton Chapter Coordinator

I owe such a debt of gratitude to Bud. After driving to Swainton from Berlin every Thursday morning for a couple of years to run the Swainton Chapter, I became tired of the drive. I told the group that we would not be having a winter session as I needed a break. Then, wonderfully, Bud offered to take my place and lead the group. I am not sure whether he realized he was getting the job permanently or not (I didn't want to tell him). Since that time, Bud has been a faithful group coordinator. The group continues to be successful as Bud devotes his time and energy to the members. His paper work is always done and he goes out of his way to promote the program. He has initiated social events for his members and volunteered to man a table at a Health Fair he had seen advertised. And, last but certainly not least, he met a lovely lady through the group and remarried. Thanks, Bud.
